BLK in Numbers

The heart of BLK is rooted at Harvard and Princeton University, the esteemed alma maters of our founding members. Over the past three years, we have taken immense pride in embracing students from diverse academic backgrounds, with a concerted effort to broaden our reach within key financial hubs.

Where we operate

Community.

Community is the foundation of our support system, providing an inclusive environment where our members come together, share resources, and collaboratively strive for common goals.

Education.

Education is a catalyst for personal advancement, equipping our members with the tools to navigate challenges, broaden horizons, and contribute meaningfully to their communities.

Experience.

Experience is the culmination of all BLK programs, be it through opportunities with our partnering firms or the practice of money management within our hedge fund.

Our Vision as Heads of EMEA

Heading the EMEA side of BLK Capital Management is a significant milestone for us. Having previously worked together at our university's finance society, we bring prior collective leadership experience, organising large scale inter-university competitions across Europe, notably the UK & Europe Financial Restructuring Competition. We envisage a continued growth trajectory for BLK, with our plans already gaining momentum.

We joined BLK through different programs: the Analyst Trainee pipeline, and the newly implemented Specialised Pathway in Private Equity. Both initiatives were instrumental in our growth with regards to fundamental technical skills required for the success in the industry, enabling us to secure private equity, credit and investment banking spring, summer and off-cycle internships in our second year of university.

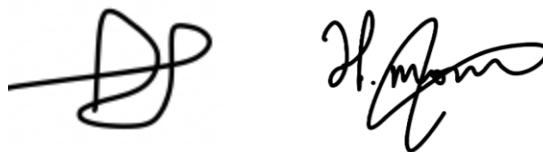

Having benefitted from this platform, we now aim to develop it in a manner that provides value for our sponsors and members. We aim to meet industry demand through our objectives for the organisation, that are; recruiting more multilingual students from top schools in the DACH region, France, Ireland and the Nordics, as well as STEM oriented students with strong quantitative backgrounds, and maintaining a balanced gender mix in BLK.

BLK's refined Campus Ambassador/Regional Liaison scheme will complement this effort by ensuring consistent engagement and localised outreach. Additionally, we hope to strengthen alumni engagement with sponsor firms to augment lateral recruitment.

At BLK, we retain the best diverse talent from across all of the top universities and university societies in the EMEA region, and we are only continuing to expand and broaden our network – our stellar summer internship placement reflects this. We aim to continue to supply a strong talent pipeline enhanced by in-house training so that our members come to your internship and graduate programmes technically astute.

We would like to extend our heartfelt thanks to our current and prospective partners who engage with BLK. It is only with the ongoing support of our generous sponsors that we can execute BLK's mission, driving meaningful change in finance.

Yours faithfully,

How We Support Our Members: Education

Technical Training

BLK members who secure full-time roles gain access to Level 3 CISI Training and BMC Training, helping them build a strong technical foundation as they transition into professional environments.

Trainee Programme Structure

All Equity Research Trainees undergo a 7-week education programme, which serves as the primary pipeline for our Analyst Programme. The curriculum covers financial markets, accounting, valuation, and stock pitching.

Etiquette Training

Designed to bridge the gap between people from socially disadvantaged backgrounds and the corporate world, our etiquette training includes sessions on client interaction, professional attire, and workplace conduct.

Specialised Pathway Programme

Following the Trainee Programme, members can join a specialised pathway in Investment Banking, Private Equity, Asset Management and Wealth Management. Each pathway combines structured learning with practical assignments around real recruiting tasks, enabling members to approach recruiting in a more meaningful manner and be more technically sound.

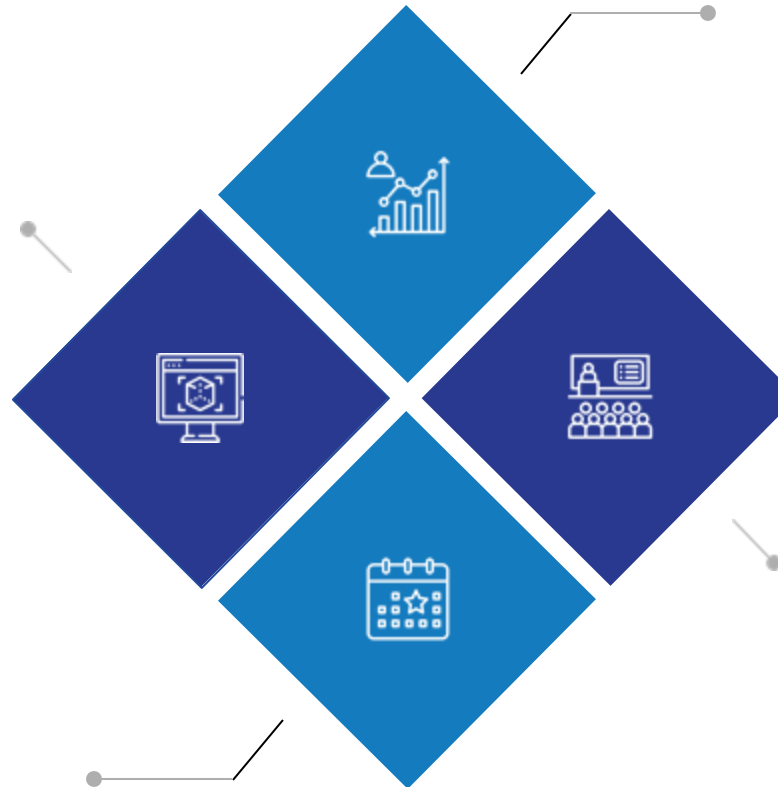

How We Support Our Members: Experience

Virtual Programming

Spotlight Calls offer sponsor-led overviews and deep dives on selected topics, attracting an average of 80+ students per session. Insight Calls invite professionals to share their industry knowledge, such as through a Q&A session. We also host a Women's Panel Series to highlight the career journeys of women in finance. Our tailored Spring Week Clinics help our members to approach insight programmes and navigate the conversion process.

In-Person Events

We prioritise firm engagement ahead of recruitment cycles through events such as case study sessions and networking events. Our Campus Ambassador Programme means that selected members from different regions can be selected to connect with sponsors.

Analyst Programme

Our Portfolio Managers lead teams of 8 Equity Research Analysts through a 5-week stock pitch cycle. Analysts gain hands-on experience in stock-picking, financial modelling, and presenting, while PMs develop leadership and team management skills. Our new Analyst Bridging Programme helps members to transition and fill the technical void when taking on more senior positions

NYC Conferences

Following an internal judging round with our Investment Committee, top-performing analyst teams pitch at our bi-annual NYC Conference before 100+ BLK members and industry professionals. The conference also features office visits, speaker panels, and targeted networking, giving sponsors visibility into our top talent.
